22 FRI - 24 SUN, 29 FRI - 31 SUN

10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. ※Until 4:00 p.m. on Sundays

Inspired by the main theme of Expo 2005 Aichi, Japan "Nature's Wisdom," students from 39 teams across 22 universities in Aichi Prefecture will present their original booths! Through workshops and product sales, they will explore a variety of topics—from international exchange to food waste and more.

Introduction of the School Festival Slogans

In preparation for the school festival, students in each term held discussions and created slogans aligned with the festival's theme. During the festival, large banners featuring these slogans will be displayed in the venue.

Term 1 (August 1-3)

With Nature — A Commitment to Protecting Nature for the Future

Term 2 (August 8-10)

LOVE EARTH LOVE US — Fun and Delicious

Term 3 (August 22-24)

Expanding Horizons Through Experience, Shaping the Future

Term 4 (August 29-31)

Connected Earth, Expanding Possibilities for the Future

Here are some of the featured booths

- Interactive workshops for learning about the SDGs in a fun way
- Fair trade product sales that promote international cooperation
- Sales of Cambodian crafts and cultural exhibits
- Upcycled product planning through collaboration between industry, academia, and welfare organizations
- Development of locally sourced menus in partnership with producers
- Hands-on workshop exploring Japanese culture through mizuhiki (traditional decorative cords)

Aichikyu Relay Symposium 2025 The Second & Third Symposium

Inspired by the vision of creating a sustainable society pursued by Expo 2005 Aichi, we will host a series of three relay symposiums focusing on three time periods: the past (nostalgia), the present (thoughts), and the future (ideas)!

The Second

August 11 (Mon/Holiday) 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

📍 Global Center Hands-on Learning Room

The second symposium will delve into the present day, examining the relationship between current societal challenges and the core philosophy of Expo 2005 Aichi!

The Third

September 13 (Sat) 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

📍 Global Center Hands-on Learning Room

In the third and final symposium, Youth Ambassadors—students from six different countries who have learned about the philosophy of Expo 2005 Aichi through the symposium series and fieldwork—will engage in discussions on what a sustainable society should look like. They will also declare their personal pledges for building a better future!

As a special guest, we are excited to welcome actress Keiko Takeshita, who served as the Chief Director of the Japan Pavilions at Expo 2005 Aichi, Japan!

Co-Weaving Our Shared Future Forum V In Dialogue with Aichi: 'Nature's Wisdom' and Art

September 14 (Sun) 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. (tentative) 📍 Global Center Hands-on Learning Room

The final session of the Co-Weaving Our Shared Future Forum turns to art. As the International Art Festival Aichi 2025 begins, we gather to reflect on the relationship between nature and artistic expression, and to explore the evolving role of museums and galleries in shaping our shared future. The philosophy of Expo 2005 - the wisdom of nature - continues to guide and inspire us.
